Where is the Agent's letter to which this agreement is to be signed by the Dewan of which he is an Agent?
Which is the rule requiring the agreement to be signed?
P.S

Serial No.

With reference to Lewis Leery's orders at pages 243 of the notes supra. It is submitted that the Agent's letter has not been received in this office from the Mag. Comm. This will be called for.

5. It is usual to obtain the Dewan's signature to documents which are in the nature of agreements between the Government and parties outside the State and the Mag. Comm. has therefore requested that the agreement in the present case might be caused to be signed by the Dewan. Besides, person named as local Agent in the M. O. letter is only a contractor or Pashupathy and hence may carries out, under instructions the routine work of the Chairman and is not a legally constituted Agent empowered to transact business on his own responsibility in this
